Refusing To Tolerate What Jesus Already Accepted On Your Behalf

"Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree" (Galatians3:13).

Do not... Miss out on anything Christ died to give you, nor tolerate anything, He died to save you from. Refuse to tolerate what Jesus already accepted on your behalf.

The price has been paid to redeem you from everything. 1Peter2:21 says, "...because Christ also suffered for us..." God "...spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all..." (Romans8:32). "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." (2Corinthians5:21). "Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us..." (Galatians3:13). Jesus "Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father" (Galatians1:4).

Christ was treated as we deserve so we could be treated as He deserves. Think of how well Jesus deserves to be treated. 1 for who He is and 2 what He did for us. Well this is how well God wants to treat us.

"For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich." (2Corinthians8:9).

"Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, and he was afflicted... And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors" (Isaiah53:4-7,9-12).

"Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed." (1Peter2:24).

"Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us..." (Galatians3:13).

Refusing To Tolerate What Jesus Already Accepted On Your Behalf

Jesus "Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father" (Galatians1:4). We limit what God can do for us by accepting what we don't have to.

God says He has given us a choice, He says "...I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live" (Deuteronomy30:19).

All this is dependant upon your obedience and the choices you make. Now I'm under the assumption that you want life and blessing, because you are listening to this message. Well if this is what you want Deuteronomy28 tells you what to do and what not to do.

Verses1-2 tells you what to do, "And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God." Then verses 3-13 tell you all the things that will happen as a direct result of your choice to be obedient.

Verses 14-15 tells you what happens if you decide to disobey what God has asked of you "And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them. But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee" Then verses16-68 tells you what the curses are, it mentions everything you can think of under the curse of the law. The curse of the law which Christ has redeemed you from, being made a curse for YOU.

Isaiah1:19-20 says, "If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured... the mouth of the LORD hath spoken..."

Jesus says, "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me" (Revelation3:20).

Jesus took all the curse of the law upon Him as explained in Isaiah53 and Galatians3 and if you are in Him and in obedience to Him, you are under no obligation to tolerate any weapon formed against you. But you have to believe that, if you don't then the enemy will have His way with you. This is why you need the armour of God on at all times especially the shield of faith and the sword of truth about to attack the enemy with. Don't you accept that any weapon formed against you is God's will. It is an attack of the enemy. God is for you not against you according to Jeremiah29:11.

Now if God is for you and with you then who can be against you? NO weapon formed against you will prosper, those are the Words of God and no Word which God speaks will fail to prosper in the thing to which He sends it, it will accomplish what God said He would and it can not return to Him void. So although the enemy comes to kill steal and destroy and parading about like a roaring lion seeking whom he MAY devour. "...If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" (Romans8:31-32). For our victory over the assaults of the enemy. God has promised to supply all our needs according to HIS riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

Many accept that an attack from the enemy as God's will. Listen, God will permit what you will permit according to your choices and what you are willing to tolerate. God is bound within the boundaries of His Word, whether or not your life is agreeable to His will or not determines your circumstances. Many live blindly they see bad things happen and are willing to accept that God did this to them or that it is God's will for them. You will see in a moment what God Himself has said and what HIS will is. "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" (John10:10).

Now I am aware unfavourable circumstances arise against everyone, whether they are in obedience to God or not this is bound to happen, because life happens. But how you react to it, is again STILL (YOUR) decision. God will allow what you'll allow. God has already stated what He wants for YOU regarding His will... If an unfavourable circumstance arises, you have every right and authority in Jesus' name to reject EVERY unfavourable circumstance that is not God's will for your life. You can come against it; in truth you have been commanded to do so. The Bible says we should be "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God..." (2Corinthians10:5).

Now God said, "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it" (Isaiah55:11).

So bare that in mind when God said, "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD" (Isaiah54:17).

Now as I mentioned earlier, I said I would show you what God's will is and this will be based on His Words not my own. You know, when you KNOW what God's will is and what He has saved you from and what was done to save you from it, you become less and less tolerant of any attack of the enemy. Now you tell me after hearing what God has to say, whether or not He wishes nothing but the best for you. You will see that although He wishes the best it is up to you to be in obedience to something to see His best be in your life. (If you are following me in the transcript then you will see that your part is in bold print.)

Psalms103:1-6 says, "Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies; Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's. The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed."

Job36:11 says, "If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures."

Refusing To Tolerate What Jesus Already Accepted On Your Behalf

"For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD" (Proverbs8:35).

"The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" (John10:10).

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end" (Jeremiah29:11). "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah29:11 (NIV)

"Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth" (3John2). We are the ones responsible for making our souls prosper and I will share with you shortly how you make your soul prosper. But what YOU really need to be concerned with right now is Having faith in the FINISHED work of Jesus...

"Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work... But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me." (John4:34, John5:36)

Then in John17:4 Jesus says, "I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do."

"For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. For we which have believed do enter into rest..." Hebrews2:2-3. We need faith in the Word of the finished work of Jesus, He has won the battle and has made us joint heirs in sharing His victory with us. What is His is ours. Jesus redeemed us from the curse of the law, this is a FINISHED work.

So when Satan sends something your way, you don't have to accept it. "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" (John10:10).

You know when a package through the mail, you don't have to accept it, you don't even have to open it. You can return it to its sender or redirect it. I recommend you redirect any package from the enemy and address it to the blood of Jesus. In whom you have your redemption. We limit what God can do for us by accepting what we don't have to.

Do not tolerate what Jesus has already accepted on your behalf. The Bible says, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour" (1Peter5:8). Satan can only devour those who are not aware of their covenant rights. Psalms103 reminds you, "forget not all His benefits." Most don't know a quarter of His benefits and this is how the devil can so easily beset us. The Word says, "If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land" (Isaiah1:19). "If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures" (Job36:11).

If you study to know His benefits, then you will know what you should be obedient to in order for those benefits to be in your life. This is why it is important to keep advancing your knowledge of God and His Word.

Refusing To Tolerate What Jesus Already Accepted On Your Behalf

When you become well versed in the Word and believe it. You construct defence mechanisms against everything weapon the enemy puts in your way and it will fail to prosper against you. Simply because you know your rights and your authority because of Jesus' name, you will REFUSE to tolerate what Jesus has ALREADY accepted on your behalf and you will unrelentingly pursue everything Jesus has promised you until it is a visible reality in your life.

When companies file their tax returns, they hire the BEST accountants and attorneys who know the law better than anyone. Why? So that they may benefit from all the tax deductions they can get. They will not tolerate paying one penny more than the law will permit them to keep in their accounts, in the deductions available to them. They will not pay for what the law says they don't have to. They will go to great lengths to avoid this at all costs.

Now YOU shouldn't pay more than what Jesus already paid for or what God's Word says you have been redeemed from. Companies will also have people look at all the benefits they can obtain from the law. IF there is any funding to be had THEY make sure somebody in the company knows about it. So, they can do the right things in order to be eligible to obtain it. They are diligent in their affairs and strive for excellence. We should be the same with The Word of God which governs the Kingdom of God; as the world is with the laws, they set which govern them. It's no wonder why Jesus said, "...the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light" (Luke16:8). We are too concerned with temporary frivolous cares of the world our affections should be set on heavenly things above.

This can be changed if will continue to obey the advice given to us in Romans12:2 and Joshua1:8. This is how we make our souls prosper. You will prosper and be in health even as your soul prospers. And this is how you make it happen.

"...be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God..."

"This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success."

We often ask of God increase our faith. Every man has already been dealt the measure of faith. Therefore, YOU must develop the faith you have already been given. Asking God to develop and increase your faith is sort of like asking God to develop and increase your physical muscles. It sounds ridiculous doesn't it, I mean nobody does that do they. "Lord please I beg of you increase my muscle mass." You have already been dealt the measure of muscles so has every man. You don't need me to tell you that muscles are developed and increased by exercising the muscles. Faith comes and increases by hearing and hearing by the Word of God. Therefore, if you want your faith to increase, understand the truth that it is your responsibility to develop your faith, just as you would have to if you wanted to develop your physical body. Things of the spirit are often developed the same way things are in the physical world. Hence why Jesus used parables of physical examples to explain spiritual things. "But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty" (1Corinthians1:27).

Refusing To Tolerate What Jesus Already Accepted On Your Behalf

Faith comes by hearing and hearing by The Word of God. "...meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success."
Joshua1:8 (NKJV)

"Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord (The Word of God), According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine..."
2Peter1:2-4 (Emphasis Added)

Have faith in the FINISHED work of Jesus...

A PERSONAL NOTE FROM THE DESK OF ELLIOT ODLE

Dear Friend,

God's wish for us above all things is that we prosper and be in health (3 John 2) Jesus came so we may have life and have it more abundantly (John 10:10) Jesus became poor so YOU through his poverty might be rich (2 Corinthians 9:8)

Jesus died on the cross so the blessing of Abraham could come on every believer in Christ; who is Abraham's seed and therefore heirs according to the promise, no matter who they are or where they live (Galatians 3) This is all so every family of the earth may be blessed (Genesis 12:3) God gives us the power to get wealth so He can establish His covenant. (Deuteronomy 8:18) Because He will build His church through prosperity Zechariah 1:17.

So, we may see Matthew 24:14 comes to pass, "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations and then shall the end come."

Meanwhile we are God's "ambassadors" to "demonstrate the kingdom with power." "Pulling down strongholds." So, it looks like Satan never came through town. The world is waiting for the "manifestation of the sons" "signs and wonders following." God's eyes search the earth to and fro looking for someone He can show Himself strong in.

God is coming back for a glorious church. A church abundant in finance and filled with Holy Spirit for direction a winning combination that cannot be stopped. Joel talks of a time when there will be an outpouring of Holy Spirit "upon all flesh," "we shall see visions and prophecy."

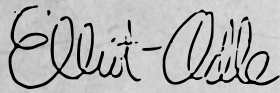

God has birthed in me His passion to get ALL believers spiritually and economically empowered to be God's elite unstoppable FORCE in this earth. HOT for God, in pursuit of righteousness, fully consecrated to God, filled with Holy Spirit; Filled with the LOVE of God going forth in the Armour of God having the Fruit of the Spirit, abiding in the Vine walking in the Anointed One's Character...

On charge taking authority over every demonic territory pulling down strongholds putting every demon in that district to flight; and by the spirit of God, pioneer pillars of righteousness usher the spirit into every community, getting unbelievers born again, translated into the Kingdom of light believers who will experience the supernatural.
