Marching BOLDLY to God's Throne

"Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." Hebrews 4:16

I believe we have a problem is Believers don't know who they are! Or maybe they do know who they are but they don't acknowledge it. People don't see themselves as God sees them. And God's sees them as He sees them, not because of their merits but who Christ made them.

You are GOD'S child. He is light, you have been called a child OF light. He is the Father of lights which includes you, you are the light He is the Father of. The Word says, "Ye are all the children of light..." (1Thessalonians5:5).

Now I want to play with this for a moment. God has made it clear that He is YOUR Father which art in heaven. Therefore, He sees Himself AS a Father. Now get this God IS love. He isn't some vicious tyrant. He is a loving spirit, in truth he doesn't have love... HE is LOVE, He is the definition of love. And YOU are His Child whom He loves.

Now I want to ask you to think about this. Would you agree with me that God is Loaded? And by loaded, I mean rich... I'm sure you do. He is LOADED BIG Time. Now let me ask you this, how does a child of rich parents behave? A child of rich parents who knows their parents will give them what they want. A parent who they KNOW said, "If you need anything just come to me, ask what ye will and I will do it!" How do they approach their rich and loving parents? Let me think this through with you.

If for example this child needed a new pair of shoes, do you think they would have any hesitation in asking their parents? You know the answer to that is No!!!

With the child's knowledge that their parents love them and with the knowledge that their parents have specifically told them to boldly approach them. Would that child have any hesitation to ask for a new pair of shoes? No!

You know beyond doubt that child would march right up to their parents and say, "Mummy, Daddy I need a pair of new shoes, the ones I have, have worn out they have holes in the soles and they are falling apart." They know their parents would get on it at their earliest convenience!

And it's because of the knowledge that child has of their parents that they would march up to their parents so boldly. Because they know BEFORE they even ask that their parents will grant them what they request. They know that they will get what they ask for and further more they are unafraid to ask for a NICE pair of shoes. When their parents take them shopping the child will have no reservations about asking for anything too nice or too expensive. Children don't have any concept of what too expensive is!!! They just know what they want and ask!

Well, YOU can do the same! Your Father has promised to supply ALL your needs, He didn't say only up to a certain amount, so don't ask too much!!! A child wouldn't even think that they are asking too much anyway. Especially the child of rich parents. They just ask for what they want, as far as they are concerned if nothing is ventured, nothing is gained. They know they have not because they ask not. They ask for what they want! Their parents have told them they can do so.

Do you see that child timidly going up to their parent, head down barely looking in their parents eyes, fiddling with their hands, and whispering, "Uh Mummy Daddy, well um well I know I'm not worthy but I was wondering if maybe, if you could find it in your heart, if it be your will to get me a new pair of shoes, it doesn't have to be anything fancy, I know I'm not worthy, in fact I'm sorry for even asking to even bother you, if you have time, if you can afford it, could you if you think I deserve it, buy me a new pair of shoes."

NO!!! That is not how they would approach their parents. Whose child do you know who talks to their parents that way. Even if they did, their parents would say, "Why are you talking like this as if you are unworthy? You are my child don't let me here you speaking like this, you belong here just as much as all my other children. Now stop being so timid and ask me properly!" And you know that's the truth. When a child whispers and mumbles so low we can barely hear and beats around the bush not asking for what they really want we get frustrated, "Will you just Speak Up properly and tell me what you want."

How many rich children do you know are shy to ask their parents anything? We are rich kids our Father has promised He will supply all our needs according to HIS riches, not according to the pocket money WE have. And when we ask for something, He will give you what you ask for.

The Lord is your shepherd you SHALL have want for anything!!!

Romans 8:32 says, "He...spared NOT his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?"

Matthew 7:7-11 says, "Ask, and it shall be given you... For every one that asketh receiveth... What man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?"

There is a program on television I've seen called Sweet 16. It's about privileged children with wealthy parents, who spoil them rotten. They have no reservations about asking their parents for anything and their parents do it. They throw parties for them and with out restraint happily spend 6 figures and up for a party which will last a few hours. These children usually get cars on the 16th Birthday and they don't have any reservations about asking for too much. Even though their parents have already spent 6 figures on their party they still expect a car on top of that! The more they ask the more they get... Now even though they act like spoiled brats and are some of the most ungrateful bunch of soles I've seen. They still get what they ask.

Marching BOLDLY to God's Throne

Jesus said, "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?" "Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us" (Ephesians3:20).

Now you need to be Bold like those children are, they are very tenacious, nothing is too much they know their parents have the means to do it. You need to be the same with your Father of course your attitudes and motives will be different, you will be polite, sincere and grateful. I'm talking about the tenacity to just ask boldly approaching your Father.

Now we know according to scripture, "...God is no respecter of persons" (Acts10:34). "For there is no difference... the same Lord over all is rich unto ALL that call upon him." (Romans10:12).

"God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?" (Numbers 23:19). When God your Daddy who loves you says "Ask, and it shall be given you... For every one that asketh receiveth..." Believe Him it's true

"...Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 18:3

"Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." Hebrews 4:16

As I mentioned before a lot of the time people tend to be timid in approaching God because they don't know, who they are and what God has called them. They don't realise how God sees them.

They see themselves as they see themselves as the devil would like them to see themselves, "Unworthy". We are worthy IN Jesus. "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that WE might be made the righteousness of God in him." (2Corinthians5:21).

We were made righteous because Jesus was made sin on our behalf. If Jesus didn't sin and was made sin, then sinners and be made righteous without having done anything right. Christ was treated as we deserve so we could be treated as He deserves. Think of how well he deserves to be treated. First for who He is, "the Son of God" and second for what He did for us. Well, that is how well God wants to treat us!!! "And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together." (Romans8:17)

Marching BOLDLY to God's Throne

For being ignorant of the righteousness that God ascribes [which makes one acceptable to Him in word, thought, and deed] and seeking to establish a righteousness (a means of salvation) of their own, they did not obey or submit themselves to God's righteousness. Romans 10:3 (AMP)

Before you go to God's throne declare, "I am the Righteousness of God... And a joint heir with Christ." We just read that we have been made the righteousness of God And that we are joint heirs with Christ. So, all you are doing is declaring who God has been made you. If you studied and got a PHD you have been made a doctor and when you introduce yourself to people you say, "Hello my name is Doctor so and so." Well, why did you say Doctor in your name? Because that's who you are. So, you do declare it to be so. So, I am saying to declare who you are, whom you have been made, "The Righteousness of God... And a joint heir with Christ." When you see yourself this way in Christ, you won't have an issue in boldly approaching the throne of grace. Because you know who you are and you have a right to be there just as much as Jesus.

I'm sure God must sit on His throne shaking His head saying I sent my son to die for them to make them who they are why won't they just acknowledge it and act like it." It must be so frustrating for Him. And why would you want to keep beating yourself down, constantly telling yourself you're worthless. We keep following what we hear other people pray because it sounds good it sounds humble. Don't worry about what other people say. You say what and who the Words of God have declared you are. Jesus made you worthy and He also said come BOLDLY to the Throne. How can you go boldly if you think you are unworthy? You've been made worthy so thank God for it.

By saying you're still on worthy you insult God. Because you are saying, "God you giving your son as a gift is not enough to make me worthy. I'm sorry I can't accept your gift Lord I'm too humble." That's not humbleness that is pride. You don't make yourself humble by belittling yourself. Jesus makes you humble and you CONNECT to it by accepting Jesus gifts and acknowledging before heaven that you are worthy in HIS name and therefore you can thank Him for making you worthy and boldly approach the throne and make your requests. It's time you stood up in WHO Christ made you and represent Him properly. You need to stop saying what you are not and start declaring who you are in the divine nature Christ has provided for you. You are the son of God and a joint heir with Christ.

You are worthy in HIM. You have been made worthy by blood through grace.

We need to be more tenacious, sometimes we're too wimpy. We don't demonstrate boldness. We're afraid hoping God will do what we ask. When we are supposed to be telling Him what to do. In fact, he has requested of us that we take that very approach. He said in Isaiah 45:11, "...concerning the work of my hands command ye me."

Marching BOLDLY to God's Throne

We have been granted ACCESS to the throne...

Revelation3:20-21 says, "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne."

According to Ephesians3:11-12 we have, "...Christ Jesus our Lord: In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him."

"Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus" (Hebrews10:19).

You have ACCESS to God through the merits of the name of Christ. Through the blood of Christ, you may go to the throne of grace AND find grace. You can go with assurance your acceptance is in His name. "For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father" (Ephesians2:18). "In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him" (Ephesians3:12).

As parents on earth encourage their children to come to them any time. The Lord encourages you to tell Him your wants your concerns and you can also share your gratitude and love with Him as we would your earthly parents. And as a good parent who has never broken a promise... EVER... Every promise He made you is certain; He has the resources to deliver. And in the name of Jesus in whom you have access covenant rights and merits, you are entitled to may make any request that you will and He will do it.

Give God, "...praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved" (Ephesians1:6). The human voice can reach God and your petitions find acceptance in the courts of heaven.

I'm going to conclude reading to you the 3rd Chapter of Galatians telling you who you are and what you have access to, what you have been given and what was given for you to obtain these things. Listen closely.

"O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain. He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Marching BOLDLY to God's Throne

Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So, then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, the just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, the man that doeth them shall live in them. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto. Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, and to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.”
Galatians 3

A PERSONAL NOTE FROM THE DESK OF ELLIOT ODLE

Dear Friend,

God's wish for US above all things is that WE prosper and be in health (3 John 2) Jesus came so WE may have life and have it more abundantly (John 10:10) Jesus became poor so YOU through his poverty might be rich (2 Corinthians 9:8)

Jesus died on the cross so the blessing of Abraham could come on every believer in Christ; who is Abraham's seed and therefore heirs according to the promise, no matter who they are or where they live (Galatians 3) This is all so every family of the earth may be blessed (Genesis 12:3) God gives US the power to get wealth so He can establish His covenant. (Deuteronomy 8:18) Because He will build His church through prosperity Zechariah 1:17.

So, WE may see Matthew 24:14 comes to pass, "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations and then shall the end come."

Meanwhile we are God's "ambassadors" to "demonstrate the kingdom with power." "Pulling down strongholds." So, it looks like Satan never came through town. The world is waiting for the "manifestation of the sons" "signs and wonders following." God's eyes search the earth to and fro looking for someone He can show Himself strong in.

God is coming back for a glorious church. A church abundant in finance and filled with Holy Spirit for direction a winning combination that cannot be stopped. Joel talks of a time when there will be an outpouring of Holy Spirit "upon all flesh," "we shall see visions and prophecy."

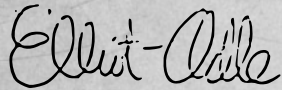

God has birthed in me His passion to get ALL believers spiritually and economically empowered to be God's elite unstoppable FORCE in this earth. HOT for God, in pursuit of righteousness, fully consecrated to God, filled with Holy Spirit; Filled with the LOVE of God going forth in the Armour of God having the Fruit of the Spirit, abiding in the Vine walking in the Anointed One's Character...

On charge taking authority over every demonic territory pulling down strongholds putting every demon in that district to flight; and by the spirit of God, pioneer pillars of righteousness usher the spirit into every community, getting unbelievers born again, translated into the Kingdom of light believers who will experience the supernatural. I appreciate all your prayers and support and am always praying for you...
