Realising WHO Christ Made you!!!

Realising Who Christ Made YOU... Wow I've seen in the Body of Christ there seems to be an issue with people accepting their TRUE identity in Christ. We see ourselves as unworthy, unrighteous, filthy, dirty old rags. And independent of Christ that would be a true statement and an accurate description.

⁵ There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler: ⁶ Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place. ⁷ I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth."

Ecclesiastes 10:5-7

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:" Philippians 2:5

⁶ Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: ⁷ Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you." 1 Peter 5:7

⁹ Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail." Micah 4:9

What you need to understand and CONSTANTLY be aware of REMEMBER is the fact that, you have been justified and been declared righteous and it has Zero to do with anything you have done other than receive righteousness and justification by faith!

And you are to now focus on being whom Christ made you! But you must recognise whether or not you've given your life to Christ, you are still wretched without Him, it's not you but Christ in you who is righteous, you need to lose all confidence in yourself! And only walk in the confidence of who Christ is who is in you!

You need to be 100% dead and live 100% Christ; it is because of Him you have become who you are. Unless you STAY connected with the vine you as the branch, won't have the sap from the vine flowing to and through you, so you can't produce the fruit of righteousness! As soon as you disconnect you become wretched! So as long as you stay connected, because He is in you, you are in God's eyes righteous and justified because of Christ in you!

"...the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, the just shall live by faith." Romans 1:17

You need to live by Faith that in God's eyes you are righteous! "...This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD."

Isaiah 54:17

You also need to recognise that your work in drawing to close to be imbued with His power and character is a progressive continuous process, you have never fully arrived, you've got to keep on going! Christ's desires for you to understand that only by receiving and appropriating truth could can you're ruined nature be reconstructed. We were "born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever." 1 Peter 1:23

Realising WHO Christ Made You!!!

Be careful when you rejoice in the possession of righteousness, lest you lose sight of your dependence upon God. Be careful lest self-sufficiency come in, and you work in your own strength, rather than in the spirit and strength of your Master. Self is ever ready to take the credit if any measure of success attends the work. Self is flattered and exalted, and the impression is not made upon other minds that God is all and in all. The apostle Paul says, "When I am weak, then am I strong." 2 Corinthians 12:10.

When we have a realization of our weakness, we learn to depend upon a power not inherent. Nothing can take so strong a hold on the heart as the abiding sense of our responsibility to God. We are to come in touch with God, then we shall be imbued with His Holy Spirit.

Then rejoice that through Christ you have become connected with God, members of the heavenly family. While you look higher than yourself, you will have a continual sense of the weakness of humanity. The less you cherish self, the more distinct and fuller will be your comprehension of the excellence of your Saviour. The more closely you connect yourself with the source of light and power, the greater light will be shed upon you, and the greater power will be yours to work for God. Rejoice that you are one with God, one with Christ, and with the whole family of heaven.

The church is built upon Christ/The Word as its foundation; it is to obey Christ/The Word as its head. It is not to depend upon man, or be controlled by man. The Rock of faith is the living presence of Christ in the church. Upon this the weakest may depend, and those who think themselves the strongest will prove to be the weakest, unless they make Christ their efficiency. "Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm." The Lord "is the Rock, His work is perfect." "Blessed are all they that put their trust in Him." Jer. 17:5; Deut. 32:4; Ps. 2:12.

"The thought that the righteousness of Christ is imputed to us, not because of any merit on our part, but as a free gift from God is a precious thought. The enemy of God and man is not willing that this truth be clearly presented. For He knows if the people receive it FULLY His power will be broken"

But what saddens me is that people who have made Jesus their Lord, still see themselves or class themselves as wretched sinners. Well, that is not the case and Christ did not go and die for you and go through all He went through for you to still call yourself all those things and stay the same. He died to restore man back to the nature God created Adam with initially and He was successful.

Therefore, YOU are not a filthy rag!!! Now... YOUR attempts to be righteous without accepting the merits of Christ are as filthy rags and if you don't accept Him as your Lord, you WILL still be a sinner and will fall short of the glory of God in your own strength. "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our

Realising WHO Christ Made You!!!

Lord Jesus Christ... For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

⁷For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. ⁸But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. ⁹Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. ¹⁰For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.” Romans 5:1,6-10

Now He has justified you, He treats you as someone, who has never wronged Him!

Let me ask you a very important question. DO you know why we call Jesus Lord? It's because the word, “Lord” means “owner.” That's what Jesus is! He is the owner of your soul. When you surrendered to Him your life, everything you had became His. He got the spoils of war just as an army does when they take over territory. Well, when you gave Jesus your life, Jesus took ownership of the spoils of war. You don't own anything anymore; Jesus took it all!

He took everything including your old carnal worldly nature. You don't have it anymore it's gone from you. And do you know what He did it once He took it from you? He washed it in His blood. It doesn't exist anymore. Here is the problem although He has done away with it, for some peculiar reason we have been deceived and still think we own what we used to. It doesn't once you've given up your possessions to a successor, that's it they are His. You can't ask for them back.

The only way you can have them back is if the successor gives them back to you and Jesus doesn't even have what he took from you anymore. He couldn't give it back to you even if He wanted to because he disposed of it. Everything you used to have as far as your old nature is gone. Now it is possible to ACT as though you still have the things you had the nature you had, you may refuse to heed to the rules by which the new governor of your territory wishes you to conform to and people do just that!

We still identify with our old nature our old man. Christ has given you a new man and a new nature. Ephesians 4:24-25 instructs us to “...be renewed in the spirit of your mind... put on the new man, (which after God) is created in righteousness and true holiness. Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.”

We keep saying that, “We are ARE sinners saved by grace” That's a lie, we lie to ourselves and others saying this. The bible doesn't call us sinners it calls us saints, we are new creatures. God doesn't call you a sinner, but you may still be calling yourself that stop doing it. Identify with Who Christ made you. “Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have (past tense) put off the old man with his deeds; And have (past tense again as in this is some thing already done) put on the new man, which is renewed (in knowledge after the image of him that created him).” Colossians 3:9-10

Realising WHO Christ Made you!!!

"Therefore if ANY man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things ARE become new" 2 Corinthians 5:17.

God doesn't say, "You ARE a sinner, saved by grace" You wanna know what the Word of God says? It says, "...God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:8

This is where we have missed it, we keep saying we are sinners, NO that was done away with (I just read it to you from the Words of God HIMSELF) God said this in Ezekiel 36:26 before Jesus came to Earth, "A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh." This is done now. As we read earlier, "...all things ARE become new."

Romans 5:8 says, "...we WERE yet sinners..." The most basic English skills will help you swiftly come to the conclusion that the word "were" refers to things in the past tense. Therefore, they are things that USED TO BE, but no longer ARE anymore. For example, if you and I were on holiday last week and came back home and someone asked us, "Where were you last week?" And we said, "We were in Paris last week." Where were we last week? In Paris. If they then asked us, "Ok so where ARE you now?" And we said, "We are home." Then where are we? At home...

You are now at home. Where you were was in Paris. You are not in Paris any more. You wouldn't tell people you are in Paris when our passport proves you WERE in Paris. You ARE now at home. So, speak as such. You WERE a sinner you ARE now a SAINT you ARE Righteous.

Although you are a saint and sin, you are not a sinner you are a saint. You were a sinner. You might be at home now and you may have brought back French food and you may still be eating it mean you are in France? No... Although it may feel like it and you act like it, you may even still (want to) be there. But whether or not you like or not, you are NOT in France, you WERE in France you ARE at home now. You are NOT a sinner, you were a sinner, you are righteous now.

I mean this is so simple to understand, but I have to make a big deal of it because people obviously don't seem to get it. We like to complicate simple things.

Jesus was made sin though He never sinned. We were sinners and were made righteous though we did nothing to deserve it. We just accepted the grace offered to us.

Don't you ever call yourself a sinner again for as long as you live. Realise and acknowledge WHO Christ made you "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be (made) the righteousness of God in him."

2 Corinthians 5:21.

Realising WHO Christ Made you!!!

DECLARE,

“I AM THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF GOD...”

I'm sure God must sit frustrated on His throne shaking His head saying, “I sent my son to die for them, to make them who they ARE why won't they just acknowledge it and act like it.” It must be so frustrating for Him. “...do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain” (Galatians 2:21).

And why would you want to keep beating yourself down, constantly telling yourself you're worthless. I hear people say in prayer, “Lord I know I'm not worthy but...” That's being prideful, in thinking that they appear humble before God, because they are calling themselves humble that is false humility and it is pride in disguise. The devil has tricked them into being prideful without them realising it. Now why do you think the enemy would do that? Because he knows “God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.” (1 Peter 5:5)

Stop saying, “I'm not worthy” You ARE worthy IN Jesus and Jesus IS worthy and as you are His joint heir so ARE YOU IN HIM. Don't approach God with timid-ness. He said come BOLDLY to the Throne. How can you go boldly if you think you are unworthy? You've been made worthy so thank God for it.

When people say they're unworthy they insult God. Because they are saying, “God You giving Your son as a gift was a nice gesture but it is not enough to make me worthy.” They are saying then that, “...Christ died in vain” They say, “I'm sorry I can't accept your gift Lord I'm too humble.” That is pride. “For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God” (Romans 10:3).

You don't make yourself humble by belittling yourself. Jesus makes you humble and you CONNECT to it by accepting Jesus gifts and acknowledging before heaven that you are worthy in HIS name and therefore you can thank Him for making you worthy and boldly approach the throne and make your requests. It's time you stood up in WHO Christ made you and represent Him properly. If you are still a sinner then what makes you any different from the World?

Not accepting who Jesus made you is like drowning in an ocean. And Jesus comes all the way from heaven just to save you personally, He walks on the water and extends His hand towards you and says, “Take my hand, let's get you somewhere safe” You say, “Safe where's that” Jesus replies, “In the grace of God My Father!!!” And you say, “No I'm not sure you're able to help me, in fact I'll probably drown you with me.” Then Jesus pleads with you, “But I came all this way! Just to save you!

Take my hand come with me, I'll get you dry, give you some clothes, feed you and take you home with me. Oh, and guess what! I've even prepared a place for you, it's a mansion by the way, come on you've gotta see it, all you have to do is take my hand. I'll do the rest." Then you say, "You know what Jesus, thanks but no thanks. I think I'll stay here in drown." Why would you do that are you mad? Of course, you're not you'd snatch His hand wouldn't you, you'd be an idiot not to. Yet people do this every day!

Christ came to the world to reveal God as a God of love mercy and compassion. The whole point of it all was to restore man back to His former glory.

In His infinite love Jesus devised the plan of salvation. This plan is fulfilled with ALL who will just cooperate. Jesus says to our Father, "Don't hold their sins against them, put them on me. Please be merciful to their unrighteousness, forget all their sins." When we accept His merits, God does exactly as Jesus requests because His righteousness is OURS and God blesses us in honour of Jesus.

When you receive the Words of Christ as if they were spoken to you by Him personally (and they were) when you apply His words to yourself, as if you were the only sinner on the planet that Jesus died to save. You will learn to claim BY FAITH the merits of the blood of your crucified and risen saviour.

God's grace awaits the demand of every sin sick soul. It will heal every spiritual disease and cleanse every heart. Grace is the remedy for EVERY one who believes.

Every promise that is in God's book holds out to you the encouragement that YOU may be a partaker of HIS divine nature. This has been made possible, in the hope that you would decide to rely on God, to BELIEVE His word so you can work His works. If God has declared you are something then you are. You don't go backward and talk about what you were.

"And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

Romans 12:2

So many feel that their flaws make it impossible for them to meet the standards Christ has established. And really that is pride. They think they are an exceptional case where Christ's blood shed isn't sufficient enough to resolve "their" issues. It's such an insult. Get this into your mind if nothing else. Righteousness is not what you do but the spirit in which you do it. Praying doesn't by any means make you righteous but righteous people do pray... In the humbleness of the access given to them by the merits of Jesus.

When you aren't trying to trust in yourself and your works and you rely on Him. Jesus adds His perfection to your work and it is accepted by the Father. You are covered by the perfection and fullness of the Lord who is your righteousness. When your will and motives are sincere and you are making an diligent effort to live up to the requirements of God. God regards you as an obedient child.

“For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him” (2 Corinthians 5:21).

“...God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ...And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus.”
(Ephesians 2:4-6)

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” Ephesians 1:7

Jesus “...gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.” Titus 2:14

“The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.” Luke 6:40

Christ was treated as we deserve so we could be treated as He deserves. Think of how well he deserves to be treated. 1 for who He is and 2 what He did for us. This is how well God wants to treat us.

“He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?” Romans 8:32

says, “And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.”

“Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.” Revelation 3:20-21

Don't miss out on anything He died to give us, nor tolerate anything, He died to save you from.

Jesus was born into sin. So you could be Born Again into righteousness, if he can be made sin and didn't even sin, then you can be made righteous without having done anything right. He was treated as a sinner so that you could be treated as righteous. “For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him” (2Corinthians5:21).

YOU HAVE BEEN MADE RIGHTEOUS

Realising WHO Christ Made you!!!

The righteous are those who received righteousness by the graciousness of God by believing that He has made them so... If that is you then your job is to come into alignment with the Word of God (this is right standing with God) and all things will be added unto you and no good thing will be withheld from those walking uprightly to His commandments.

It's all to do with obedience. If you are willing and obedient you shall eat the good of the land.

Now since righteousness is a gift, you did nothing to earn it. The only thing you do to be righteous is accept God's gracious gift. When you do you are classed as righteous because you belong to a family who accepted the same gift who are also called righteous. Righteousness is now your nature as a NEW creature (2 Corinthians 5:17).

There are many people in the world who may do the righteous things they are supposed to do, they are in right standing with God's laws but they haven't accepted the gift of righteousness, so they still aren't righteous, righteousness is not by works. It's a gift... Attempts to be righteous without accepting Jesus as their Lord and saviour is a fruitless pursuit, Jesus has not come inside them and they don't have His nature or HIS BLOOD COVERING them so, God just sees an unrighteous filthy soul behaving well.

That's why it's sad to see good people die that didn't make Jesus Lord of their life. Jesus won't save them because of their good works, their righteousness is as filthy rags. (Isaiah 64:6) There is only one way to Heaven and Jesus is that way. (Matthew 7:14 & John 14:6)

"For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." (Romans 10:3-4)

Believeth what? That Christ is the end of the law. Righteousness by works doesn't work!

I was going to suggest to you to read Romans 4 and Galatians 3 in your own time but I feel impressed to just read them for you. I'll read Romans 4 first...

"What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

Realising WHO Christ Made you!!!

Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect: Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all, (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb: He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification." Romans 4

And Now for Galatians 3

"O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain. He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Realising WHO Christ Made You!!!

Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto. Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

Realising WHO Christ Made You!!!

Galatians 3

Isn't God truly wonderful and merciful He really is gracious. With all our sins and weaknesses He doesn't even cast us aside.

God loves the sinless angels who obey all His commands but He doesn't give them grace. The fallen angels can't get into the grace of God that He has offered to us. Yet God has offered us grace, grace is one of the most valuable attributes of God.

"What is man, that thou art mindful of him?" Psalm 8:3 Behold what manner of love the Father has given unto us, that WE might be called the sons of God. "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works." Psalm 145:9

"Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee. Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart." Job 22:21-22

"Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:" Romans 3:20-22

"For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;" Romans 3:23

Verse 24 focuses on the point that despite the fact that 'all have sinned' we are 'redeemed', that through faith in Jesus we've been justified and redeemed.

The focus WASN'T on the fact that we have all fallen short. We know that, the focal point is on the fact that redemption is NOW available. But our attention and focus has been directed away from the main thing. The whole reason Jesus came in the first place. The key here is to keep the main thing, the main thing.

What's been happening is we haven't been taught righteousness we've been taught to focus on sin and we don't focus beyond sin. So, we focus on trying to beat sin instead of doing what God instructed which was walking in the spirit, in your righteous nature which you received by faith; and when you do that, you won't fulfil the lusts of the flesh.

He said fight the good fight of faith. He didn't say fight sin. He said submit to God walk in the spirit fight the good fight of faith and you won't fulfil the lusts of the flesh. But here we are trying stop sinning, giving no focus on righteousness. Don't try to stop sinning, just focus on walking in the spirit in your new nature in Christ and you won't fulfil the lust of the flesh.

When Jesus was tempted by the devil to turn the stones to bread, He didn't say to Himself, "Ok Jesus, don't turn the stones into bread, don't turn the stones into bread, don't turn the stones into bread, whatever you do just don't turn the stones into bread!" No, He didn't say that, He submitted to God and His Word he set his affections on heavenly things walking in the spirit and He didn't fulfil the lust of the flesh! Question! Where was His focus on not sinning or on righteousness?

I'm saying this because you and I become and behave like what we focus on. They tell me that when they train racing drivers to be able to handle the vehicle in an accident, they train them to focus on staying on the road. You see when you lose control of a vehicle and you see a pole in the road, you start to focus on the pole, because you are trying to avoid crashing into it. And what usually happens? you go into pole! Why because where you focus, you unconsciously steer towards whether or NOT it's a place you want to end up!

Job said, "The very thing I feared has come upon me" What He focused on came upon Him. Now a racing driver is taught to focus on the road, even if there is a pole, they can crash into they are taught to focus on the road, because usually where they are focused is where they will end up!

Now I'm saying when you focus on sin, whether it is wanting to sin or not wanting to sin, the point is you are focused on it, which ever way you are looking at it, doesn't matter you are focused on sin. But if you do like the racing driver does, he focuses on the road, where He wants to be. You should focus on righteousness, where you want to BE! And you won't go crashing into sin!

"Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame." 1 Corinthians 15:34 Change your focus to righteousness

"Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing."

Philippians 3:13-16

Now I wanna read verse 13 again, because I wanna point something out. "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, FORGETTING those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,"

Realising WHO Christ Made You!!!

The word “forgetting” in the Greek means to, “pick another point of focus. Abandoning the former things or even entertaining the very thought of them ever again... and it should never be revisited”

“There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.” Romans 8:1

“...for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?” 2 Corinthians 6:14. You need to make up your mind, which one you want to focus on and forsake the other.

“For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him...”
2 Chronicles 16:9

Now let me say this, righteousness isn't the goody good things you do, that's called obedience. Righteousness is a nature received by faith. When you know and accept righteousness is what your nature is, it will make you act right. And this is why people struggle trying to walk in obedience, they're trying to do it without having first properly recognised and identified their nature as new righteous creatures in Christ! In other words, they are trying to act holy without righteousness. And as long as you do that you are always going to fall flat on your face.

When you focus on the fact that you have been made the righteousness of God and that you are royalty and through Him you can do ALL things. All that struggling eventually goes away and when you get there, there is no such thing as impossibility!

When you are righteous and don't know it, life reigns over you! But when you accept that you ARE righteous and focus on that, you watch it bring you into right living! Even though you might not be acting right, right now, you will eventually start acting right. Because where you focus you go! “...they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)”
(Romans 5:17)

When you're 'righteous' and God wants to do something, He can do it through you because you have His nature.

Now here's how you actually get into this, and make it your reality, I want you to get this so listen closely!

You have to first of all understand this you have been “...born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.” (1 Peter 1:23) Whatever He has, He has deposited in you! Now when you aren't aware of that, the only other thing you can be aware of is a sin consciousness. And when you have a sinful mindset it stripes you of faith.

Realising WHO Christ Made you!!!

The very faith you need to resist the devil, now if you don't have faith how can you resist repeating the sins you've been struggling with?

So, here's what you do now, here it is; START by awakening to righteousness and that you ARE a NEW creature, start with accepting the fact that you ARE righteous and keep feeding yourself those thoughts VERY IMPORTANT, keep this up! Keep feeding yourself those thoughts of your spiritual reality and the fact that you are a new creature.

In fact, keep listening to this audio, read the transcript get into the scriptures, repeat them to yourself in the shower, while washing dishes it will renew your mind! That my friend is what you call walking in the spirit! And when you walk in the mindset of the spirit and STAY in it, you won't fulfil the lusts of the flesh!

You begin reigning in life over any given situation. All because you started recognising the reality of who and what you really are. And you are the righteousness of God...

This is Elliot Odle... Bye bye

Realising WHO Christ Made YOU!!!

A PERSONAL NOTE FROM THE DESK OF ELLIOT ODLE

Dear Friend,

God's wish for US above all things is that WE prosper and be in health (3 John 2) Jesus came so WE may have life and have it more abundantly (John 10:10) Jesus became poor so YOU through his poverty might be rich (2 Corinthians 9:8)

Jesus died on the cross so the blessing of Abraham could come on every believer in Christ; who is Abraham's seed and therefore heirs according to the promise, no matter who they are or where they live (Galatians 3) This is all so every family of the earth may be blessed (Genesis 12:3) God gives US the power to get wealth so He can establish His covenant. (Deuteronomy 8:18) Because He will build His church through prosperity Zechariah 1:17.

So, WE may see Matthew 24:14 comes to pass, "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations and then shall the end come."

Meanwhile we are God's "ambassadors" to "demonstrate the kingdom with power." "Pulling down strongholds." So, it looks like Satan never came through town. The world is waiting for the "manifestation of the sons" "signs and wonders following." God's eyes search the earth to and fro looking for someone He can show Himself strong in.

God is coming back for a glorious church. A church abundant in finance and filled with Holy Spirit for direction a winning combination that cannot be stopped. Joel talks of a time when there will be an outpouring of Holy Spirit "upon all flesh," "we shall see visions and prophecy."

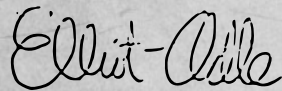

God has birthed in me His passion to get ALL believers spiritually and economically empowered to be God's elite unstoppable FORCE in this earth. HOT for God, in pursuit of righteousness, fully consecrated to God, filled with Holy Spirit; Filled with the LOVE of God going forth in the Armour of God having the Fruit of the

Realising WHO Christ Made You!!!

Spirit, abiding in the Vine walking in the Anointed One's Character...

On charge taking authority over every demonic territory pulling down strongholds putting every demon in that district to flight; and by the spirit of God, pioneer pillars of righteousness usher the spirit into every community, getting unbelievers born again, translated into the Kingdom of light believers who will experience the supernatural. I appreciate all your prayers and support and am always praying for you...
